Introduction

The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CI Arb) is a leading professional membership organisation representing the interests of alternative dispute practitioners worldwide. Founded in 1915 and has now over 13.000 members in more than 100 countries. The CI Arb is a not-for-profit, UK registered charity. CI Arb works in the public interest through an international network of 37 branches, which works in the public interest through its international network of more than 30 Branches and Chapters.

The Cyprus Branch was founded in 1976 and has 97 members. It is also an approved provider of the Institute's Courses and provides courses for all levels of CI Arb membership.

The diversity of cultures and practices across the continents and other countries around Cyprus, and the fact that Cyprus is a leading international business and shipping centre, enable the Branch to bring together a unique mixture of dispute resolution methods, practices and experiences.

The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CI Arb) is celebrating its Centenary year in 2015 and a number of flagship events including Conferences in the UK and overseas, a Centenary Book and the creation of a Centenary Fund to finance future research in the projects in the field of private dispute resolution.

As part of its Centenary Celebrations, the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators Cyprus Branch is organizing an Arbitration Week for its centenary celebration in association with the Anglo-Russian Law Society from 19 - 23 October 2015.
